OFFICIAL OPERATING BUDGET FISCAL YEAR 2012

GLOSSARY OF KEY TERMS

Accrual: The recognition of revenue when earned or expenses when incurred regardless of when cash is received or disbursed

Accrual Accounting: A basis of accounting in which revenues are recorded when they are earned and expenditures (or expenses) are recorded when they are incurred, regardless of when cash is actually received or spent.

Ad Valorem Taxes: Taxes which are levied according to the value of the property.

Allotment: The part of an appropriation that can be encumbered or expended during an allotment period. An allotment period is generally less than one fiscal year in length.

Appropriation: A specific amount of money authorized by the city council to be spent for a particular purpose. In the General Fund an appropriation is only valid for one fiscal year.

Assessed Value: The value set for property that serves as the basis for levying taxes.

Balance Sheet: An itemized statement that lists the total assets and the total liabilities of a given business to portray its net worth at a given moment of time. The amounts shown on a balance sheet are generally the historic cost of items and not their current values.

Balanced Budget: Represents the fiscal plan of operation of the City. To be balanced, the fiscal plan consists of an equal amount of proposed revenues and expenditures.

Boards and Agencies: The various not for profit organizations that receive appropriations from the City of Birmingham for providing services to area citizens. Most of these boards and agencies are not under the administrative control of the City.

Bond: A written promise to pay a specified sum of money at a stated date or dates along with any interest due. The most common types of bonds are general obligation and revenue bonds. Bonds are generally used to finance capital projects and require prior approval by the voters before they can be issued.

Bond Anticipation Notes: A short-term debt instrument issued by a state or municipality to borrow against the proceeds of an upcoming bond issue.

Budget: A fiscal plan of operation. The budget consists of proposed expenditures and proposed revenues together with specific authorizations and restrictions as appropriate. It also includes not only the proposed fiscal plan but the current and prior fiscal period history. The budget quantifies executive and legislative objectives and provides a quantitative means of measurement of performance. As a guideline for operations, the budget changes over time in response to changes in conditions. Finally, the budget embodies public policy and provides insights into how that policy will be implemented.

OFFICIAL OPERATING BUDGET FISCAL YEAR 2012

Budget Calendar: The schedule of dates followed in planning, preparing, and adopting the budget.

Budget Transfer: The procedure used to modify an appropriation. The mayor can authorize transfers between categories of appropriations in the same fund within a department. A transfer between funds or between departments requires authorization from the city council.

Capital Budget: The plan of proposed capital outlays and the means of financing them for the current accounting period.

Capital Improvement Program: The plan for capital improvement projects to be undertaken, continued or completed over a fixed number of fiscal years, along with the resources for financing those projects. Each year's Capital Budget will be made up from the annual projects listed in the City's Five Year Capital Improvement Program.

Capital Outlay: Expenditures for acquiring or adding to fixed assets. Examples of capital outlays include equipment, tools, vehicles, furniture, and building improvements.

Capitalized Lease Obligations: A lease obligation that has to be capitalized on the balance sheet. It is characterized by: it is non-cancelable; the life of lease is less than the life of the asset(s) being leased; and, the lessor does not pay for the upkeep, maintenance, or servicing costs of the asset(s) during the lease period.

Cash Management: The process of determining how much cash will be needed to pay the expenditures of a given period and investing any temporary cash balances in order to obtain the highest return possible.

Citizen's Advisory Board: A city-wide representation of the Citizen Participation Program. The Citizen's Advisory Board is made up of the presidents of the twenty two Community Advisory Committees.
